CITY OF CALDWELL PRESS RELEASE

DATE: November 1, 2022

Tonight at the Caldwell City Council Meeting at 6 p.m., a Proclamation declaring November Pancreatic Cancer Awareness month will be read.

The proclamation not only brings awareness to pancreatic cancer, but also honors the memory of Councilor Diana Register's husband, Caldwell Police Officer Chad Register. Chad was a loved and respected officer who valiantly served the community of Caldwell for eight years. He passed June 24, 2016 after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer.

American Cancer Society data predicts almost 50,000 people in the United States will die from pancreatic cancer this year.

The meeting will be held at the Caldwell Police Station Community Room, 110 S. 5th Ave.
