CALDWELL POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESS RELEASE

June 28, 2023

At 11:30 a.m. today, staff at Caldwell City Hall were processing the mail and noticed a large suspicious envelope. Employees believed the envelope could possibly contain dangerous materials. Employees immediately called the Caldwell Police.

Out of an abundance of caution, officers temporarily evacuated City Hall. The Nampa Police Bomb Squad was called in and assisted with the preliminary investigation. After it was determined that no dangerous materials were inside the envelope, the evacuation order was lifted, and City Hall reopened to employees as well as the public at 1:00 p.m.

The investigation is ongoing. There is no threat to the public. We want to thank the Nampa Police Bomb Squad for their partnership.
