Please initial each column indicating that you have read and understand the Home Occupation Ordinance. Home occupation renewal permit applications shall meet all of the following home occupation standards to be considered eligible for approval:

	Applicant	Caldwell City Code Section
1		The home occupation is clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling. The only uses that may be allowed as a home occupation in any zoning district shall be those that are listed with footnote 2 as shown in section 10-02-02, table 1, "Land Use Schedule", of this article.
2		The home occupation is conducted within the dwelling and is carried on by the inhabitants of the dwelling. The inhabitants of the dwelling do not need to be the dwelling owners, but they must be occupying the dwelling. There may be one individual (paid or unpaid) allowed to participate in the operations of the home occupation, along with the dwelling inhabitant(s), who is not an inhabitant of the dwelling. No one else outside of the dwelling unit shall be allowed to participate in the operations of the home occupation other than the one individual described above.
3		No article shall be sold or offered for sale on the premises or property, except such as is produced by the inhabitant of the dwelling. Any illegal articles or goods sold or offered for sale on the premises such as stolen property or any form of contraband shall be strictly prohibited.
4		The home occupation shall not change the character of the dwelling or adversely affect the uses permitted in the zoning district. No activity shall indicate from the exterior that the dwelling is being used in whole or in part for any purpose other than that of a dwelling unit. This includes any on street parking by any individual other than a current resident of the subject home as a result of the home occupation. No more than one home occupation is permitted per dwelling.
5		The delivering of supplies and loading or unloading of vehicles, pertinent to the home occupation, shall not take place between the hours of five o'clock (5:00) P.M. and eight o'clock (8:00) A.M.
6		Not more than one-fourth (1/4) of the gross area of the dwelling shall be used, as a whole, for a home occupation contained within the dwelling. Garages, whether detached or attached, shall not be included in the calculation of the gross area, they shall not count as a portion of the one-fourth (1/4) area that may be used for the home occupation.
7		All parking resulting from the operation of the home occupation shall be located on site of the dwelling in a designated parking area such as a driveway; not on the public street or public street right-of-way or in the front yard or front yard setback area.

8	A nameplate sign that complies with section 10-02-06 of this article is permitted when attached to the dwelling. [The nameplate can be no greater than three (3) square feet in area and must be attached flush on the dwelling].
9	Garages and/or accessory buildings may be occupied by a home occupation if they meet the following standards: 1). No more than fifty percent (50%) of the total gross area of the garage may be utilized for the home occupation; 2). No more than two hundred (200) square feet of total area of accessory structure(s) may be utilized for the home occupation.
10	Hazardous materials shall not be stored in any quantity exceeding a one day supply and shall comply with International Fire and Building Codes for residential occupancy.
11	There shall be no commodities sold, or services rendered, that require receipt and delivery of merchandise, goods, or equipment by anything other than a passenger vehicle or mail delivery vehicles.
12	There shall be no outdoor display of goods or outside storage of equipment or materials used in the home occupation.
13	Dimensions, power rating or weight of equipment and tools used in the conduct of the home occupation shall not exceed that of normal household equipment and tools.
14	The applicant may be subject to a scheduled inspection by the planning and zoning department to verify compliance with requirements in this chapter, and the applicant shall pass said inspection, prior to issuance of a home occupation renewal permit. All applicable codes must be met to obtain a home occupation renewal permit.
15	An application requesting a home occupation renewal permit shall be valid for sixty (60) days from the date of the submittal to the planning and zoning department. If inspections are not completed (when required) and passed and a subsequent home occupation renewal permit issued within the sixty (60) day time frame, the submitted application shall become null and void and a new application will need to be submitted and applicable fees will need to be paid with the new application, as well as all new inspections and applicable background checks.
