CALDWELL POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESS RELEASE

May 28, 2024

The Caldwell Police Department is proud to announce the addition of the Special Olympics Idaho, Law Enforcement Torch Run patrol car to its fleet. The vehicle was unveiled during the Caldwell leg of the torch run on May 24.

The Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics is a fundraiser for Special Olympics. Known as Guardians of the Flame, law enforcement members and Special Olympics athletes carry the Flame of Hope into the Opening Ceremony of local competitions, and into Special Olympics State, Provincial, National, Regional, and World Games. The 2024 games take place in Caldwell June 7-8. To learn more about Special Olympics Idaho, including information on volunteer and support opportunities, please visit www.specialolympicsidaho.org

Caldwell Police would like to thank The Sign Shoppe of Caldwell for its help in designing the Special Olympics Idaho patrol vehicle.

“We are proud to unveil our new patrol car, which showcases my commitment as the Chief to ensuring our most vulnerable communities are represented with pride and compassion,” said Chief Ingram, Caldwell Police Department.

This car joins five other specialty cars in the CPD fleet, the College of Idaho car, the Pink Ribbon Breast Cancer Awareness car, the Domestic Violence Awareness car, the Caldwell Night Rodeo car, and the Caldwell High School-themed car.
